Dear Roman,

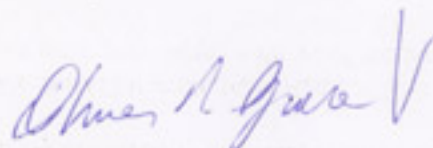

I want to convey my heartfelt appreciation for providing an outstanding group of musicians on the night of my daughter's wedding as well as the string quartet for the Rehearsal Dinner the night before. Your professionalism and dedication to the job exceeded everyone's expectation.

With the vast experience and individual talents of each of your band members and an extensive repertoire of instrumental & vocal numbers, your group of musicians produced many individually tailored performances to suit everyone's tastes.

We wanted it all, from Rock n' Roll to Cole Porter and we got it. It was spectacular. We were very happy with all of the arrangements you provided. Testament to that was the full dance floor for six hours. Since the wedding we have had many comments about how great the band was and the variety of music... "where did you find that band", is a comment we heard most often! Some of my guests mentioned that the quality was similar to the actual performances by the original artists. With such a diversity of music performances you provided a full accrument from music to lighting which complement the performances.

The arrangements are very full and rich. We went with the 14 piece orchestra to make sure we had variety of female and male vocals. A key feature of this group seemed to be they can pick the right song for the moment and adjust the music... length of song, intensity etc. I enjoyed your talent and professionalism.

Sincerely,

Oliver R. Grace, Jr.
